

Librarian's Report

12/08/2016

After sending out 200 letters and several emails and faxes; we were able to raise $4,494 for the Library. The silent auction raised $1,294 and the 50/50 raffle was a flop. We only sold 5 tickets and all to James Dementi. The Angel Tree has always been able to bring in a lot of donations. Ruby Marine gave us $2,000, so that really pumped up the numbers.

I have been working on sending out thank you cards and Certificates of Appreciation to all the donors along with a receipt of their donation that they can use for tax purposes.

I came back from maternity leave and a few days later my co-worker Mary Lou had to stop working for health reasons. Mary Lou was an excellent employee. I really miss her at the library. I am a little behind with work now. It looks like I might get some help soon. That will be good because grant Season is just around the corner.

Fawn Fields and I are getting ready to host a few classes on technology. Watch for postings. If you are interested in computer classes then speak with me and let me know what you want to learn and we will try to fit a class, to your needs.

Hope everyone will have a lovely Christmas!

That is all there is to report,

Darcia Grace,

Librarian
